DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in claim 1.

Therefore, the following must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s):

- A rubber pad adhered to a bottom surface of the glove.
- The spaces formed between the adjacent finger portions being filled by the rubber pad.
- The rubber pad being substantially flat.

Note: No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. The amendment filed 10/22/2004 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows:

In claim 1:

- The rubber pad adhered to a bottom surface of the glove.

Art Unit: 3617

- The spaces formed between the adjacent finger portions being filled by the rubber pad.
- The rubber pad being substantially flat after adhesion to the soft glove.

Note: Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office

Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification, as originally filed, in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In the amended claim 1, the applicant has claimed the following:

- The rubber pad adhered to a bottom surface of the glove.
- The spaces formed between the adjacent finger portions being filled by the rubber pad.
- The rubber pad being substantially flat after adhesion to the soft glove.

However, the newly added limitations, as above, are not supported in the original specification.

Art Unit: 3617

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1 (line 6), use of "the bottom surface" (emphasis provided) renders the claim indefinite because it is not clear if such is same or different from the "lower surface" of the glove recited previously in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Spencer et al. (US 4,964,824 A).

Spencer et al. shows a glove with adjacent finger portions [20-24] and separated by spaces (see figure 2), and a rubber pad [10a] adhered to at least a bottom surface of the glove such that the spaces between the finger portions are filled by the pad (see col. 4, lines 10-14; and lines 43-51). The finger-receiving hollow of the pad is concave.

It is noted that both the glove as well as the rubber pad are made of soft material. If the pad is connected to the glove when a user's hand is not in the glove and placed on a flat surface, the pad as well as the glove would be substantially flat. Alternatively, if the user spread the fingers in a horizontal plane, the pad would also be disposed in the same horizontal plane.

Art Unit: 3617

Such orientation of the pad is considered as being substantially flat, even though an outer surface of the glove is not flat.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 2 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record in the attached PTO Form 892, but not yet relied upon, is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

11. The applicant is reminded that inclusion of new matter, which is not supported in the specification as originally filed, is not permitted. However, new matter may be incorporated by filing a Continuation-In-Part (CIP) application.

12. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Art Unit: 3617
